Making the total number of inmates and outside beneficiaries at the present time, ... 64

Under the vote of the Directors mentioned in the last Annual Report, the Committee have continued the work on the addition to and improvement of the Home; and, while it has been a long time in process, owing to the nature of the work and having the building occupied all the time, now that the changes have been completed, we can all see what great and acceptable improvements the architect, Mr. George A. Clough, has brought out of the ill constructed or adapted building the Home was before.

Nearly all the inmates will have a pleasant separate room, with closet. The new dining-room is an exceedingly pleasant room, lighted on three sides, and will probably be occupied in a few days. For a large part of the cheerfulness and brightness of this room, we are indebted to the generosity of Mr. Cyrus T. Clark, who has frescoed and decorated it as a present to the old gentlemen, who certainly has been a true friend to the Home in previous instances as well as in this one.

There has been expended on account of the addition and alterations the past year, ...	$17,738.07
There was expended in 1884, ...	5,800.00
Amount expended to Jan. 1, 1886, ...	$23,538.07
There has also been expended for furnishing the additions, ...	1,549.84
	$25,087.91

There are a few other bills not rendered in season to be settled for the last year's account, which will have to appear in the next.

From the Treasurer's report, it will be seen that our expenses have been, during the year, including $5,628.19 paid to outside beneficiaries, ...	$17,552.71
And our income for the year, ...	15,775.40
Showing an excess of expenses over the income of . .	$1,777.31

There have been received the following donations; —

From the Estate of George A. Chaffee, ...	$100.00
" " Estate of Hollis Moore, ...	500.00
" " Estate of Mrs. Valeria G. Stone, ...	3,000.00
" William H. Cades, ...	5.00
" Stephen G. Deblois, Henry C. Brooks, and Francis G. Davis, toward the funeral expenses of the late George Deblois, ...	50.00
	$3,655.00

Thanksgiving day passed with special pleasure; and the old gentlemen enjoyed their sumptuous dinner provided by the thoughtfulness and generosity of their friend, our late President, Peter C. Brooks, who left a fund for this special purpose.

On Christmas, their thoughtful friend, Mrs. S. D. Bradford, although confined at home by illness, still feeling the great interest she has for so many years, sent, by her son and grandchildren, gifts and a pretty bouquet to each inmate. The pleasure of this annual visit is greatly appreciated by all, and it is to be regretted that the one who has given so much pleasure to the old gentlemen was not able to have personally heard their expressed thanks.

Flowers from the Hollis Street Mission and other gifts of fruits and clothing and good reading matter have been received from kind friends; and we would be glad to send the thanks of the Directors to each donor, if we always knew at the time from whom the gift was received.

We have lost by death, during the past year, one of the earliest officers of this corporation and one most constant at all the meetings, Rev. Dr. Rufus Ellis, who, while abroad for health and pleasure, was suddenly taken from us on the twenty-third day of September.

The Directors at a special meeting passed the following Resolutions: —

Resolved, That in the decease of Dr. Rufus Ellis, our Vice-President, suddenly removed from his sphere of usefulness here to the Home set apart for the righteous, we share with our whole community the sense of bereavement occasioned by his death. Successor to Wilson and Cotton in the pastorate of the First Church, and holding well up their high standard of ability and worth, like them steadfast in essentials, but neither austere nor intolerant,— now that after a life so exemplary, profoundly esteemed and lovingly regarded, he passed on, the event claims more than ordinary tribute. In other relations, he will be missed and mourned, and his memory persuade to the imitation of his example.

The Christian graces that marked his character pre-eminently fitted him for his duties here; and we, who so long have had occasion to appreciate his wise counsels, his zeal in promoting the best interests of the institution, his tender sympathy in cheering the disconsolate and removing unnecessary doubts among its inmates, bear ready witness upon our records to his claim to be gratefully remembered as a founder, friend, and benefactor of the Home.

Resolved, That we tender to the family of Dr. Ellis our sincere sympathy in their great affliction, and that we will attend his funeral as a testimony of respect for his memory.

Much credit is due to our physicians, Drs. Charles D. and John Homans, 2d, for their services during the past year; and to their skill and the watchful care and efficiency of our Superintendent, Miss Lincoln, is due the good health of the inmates. For, while the construction of the new addition and alterations have been going on and the building more or less exposed to the outside elements, no special sickness has resulted.

Improper conduct of any of the inmates shall be reported to the Executive Committee.

Beneficiaries.

ART. X. SECT 1. Every applicant must furnish satisfactory testimonials of the respectability of his character, and freely communicate all facts necessary to a proper understanding of his case.

SECT. 2. In no case whatever shall any person be placed on the list of beneficiaries but those who are natives of the United States of America, are at least fifty-five years of age, and have resided in Boston during the ten years next preceding their application for relief, unless by the unanimous vote of all the Directors present, the number present being not less than twelve.

SECT. 3. Each beneficiary when first admitted shall be upon probation for the term of six months. After the expiration of said term, the Directors shall, as they deem expedient, dismiss or confirm the applicant as a permanent inmate of the Home.

SECT. 4. Persons not confirmed as permanent inmates shall be refunded the balance of the admission fee paid by them, after deducting therefrom three dollars per week for the time they have remained in the Home, as a compensation for their board.

SECT. 5. Every inmate must obey the rules and regulations of the Corporation and of the Directors.

SECT. 6. The Directors in all cases reserve the right to dismiss and expel from the Home any inmate who shall violate any of the rules, or whom, from any other cause, they may deem not to be a proper object of this charity; admissions to the Home not being permanent, but only during the good behavior of the inmates and the pleasure of the Directors. Notice of the intention to dismiss and expel an inmate shall be given in the call for the meeting when such action is to be taken.

SECT. 7. Beneficiaries aided out of the Home may be stricken from the list, or the amount of relief modified at any time, by vote of the Directors.

SECT. 8. The Directors shall from time to time fix the terms of admission to the Home. Unless otherwise ordered, one hundred and fifty dollars shall be the fee for admission in each case.

SECT. 9. Furniture and other articles brought into the Home, by or for permanent inmates, must remain for the benefit and use of the Home. Beneficiaries who have property must secure the same to the Corporation before admission; and, in case of money or other property coming into their possession after their admission, by inheritance, bequest, or otherwise, if they continue as an inmate of the Home, they must make the same over to the Corporation, upon the demand of the Directors.

SECT. 10. Any inmate desirous, for any cause, to leave the Home, is at liberty to depart. Should he leave within six months from his admission as a permanent inmate, the entrance-money which has been paid on his account shall be returned, after deducting a reasonable amount for his support while in the Home. Should he have made over any property to the Corporation, the said property or the amount of the proceeds of the same shall be paid to him, after deducting his board for the time he has been in the Home; but, after once leaving, he cannot return as an inmate, unless by vote of the Directors.

Amendments.

ART. XI. These By-Laws may be altered or amended at any legal meeting of the Directors, provided that, in the notices calling said meeting, it shall have been stated that an alteration or amendment is to be made.

HOUSE RULES.

1. The entire care of the house shall be in charge of the Superintendent, under the direction of the Executive Committee.

2. The Superintendent shall strictly obey and enforce the rules, and by firmness, kindness, attention, and judicious treatment, endeavor to secure the comfort and happiness of the inmates; who, on their part, shall pay strict obedience to all rules and regulations, and treat the Directors, Visitors, Superintendents, Assistants, and each other with becoming respect, and by gentlemanly conduct at all times, and by acts of courtesy and forbearance, endeavor to make a happy household.

4. Breakfast at seven o'clock, from April 1 to October 1, and at eight o'clock from October 1 to April 1; dinner at one o'clock; tea at six o'clock from April 1 to October 1, and at five o'clock from October 1 to April 1.

5. 6. The Superintendent will preside at the table, and ask a blessing before each meal.

7. Those confined to their rooms by illness will be furnished with sick-diet, under the direction of the Physician and the Superintendent.

8. Washing and ironing shall, if practicable, be done on Mondays and Tuesdays.

20. The friends of inmates and the public generally may visit the house only on Wednesdays and Saturdays, from nine to eleven o'clock A.M. and from three to five P.M., unless by a permit from one of the Directors.

21. To preserve order and harmony in the family, entire obedience must be paid to all the rules and regulations adopted for the government of the Home. It shall be the duty of the Superintendent to admonish the inmates for any violation of the same; and, if repeated, the Superintendent shall prefer a complaint to the Executive Committee, to take such action as they may deem expedient. Provided, that nothing herein contained shall be necessary to the validity of a vote of removal by the Directors.

The certificate of the Physician of the Home, that the mental and physical condition of the applicant is such as to entitle him to be an inmate, is required before admission.

22. Inmates earning money must pay the same to the Executive Committee at their next succeeding meeting, to be expended for the special use and benefit of the party earning the same, at the discretion of the Committee.
